IRISH LAND COMMISSION.

THE LABOURERS (IRELAND) ACTS, 1883, 1885, & 1886.

The 3rd day of March, 1887.

It is this day Ordered that the General Order of the 16th July, 1886, is hereby rescinded, and the following Order substituted therefor, both as regards pending and future proceedings under the said Acts.

The Order made upon such application shall where made by one Commissioner be signed by such Commissioner, and where made by a Sub-Commission shall be signed by the members of the Sub-Commission, or a majority of them, and shall, when sealed as hereafter mentioned, be then deemed to be an operative Order.

When the time for serving notice of rehearing has passed without any notice of rehearing being served, or if such notice be withdrawn, or be or become invalid, the Order of the Commissioner or of the Sub-Commission shall be engrossed on parchment in duplicate by the party having the carriage of the application, and shall have described on each part a map of the premises. The engrossment duly stamped shall be lodged with the Registrar of the Irish Land Commission, and shall be sealed with the Seal of the Land Commission, and shall thereupon be an operative Order. If the case be reheard, the Order made on such rehearing shall be made in manner hereinbefore prescribed, save that besides being sealed with the Seal of the Commission, it shall be signed by at least two Commissioners, and shall thereupon be operative.
